

Environmentally Responsible Grainger can help your facility conserve water.

Issue: Avoid wasting water with inefficient toilets that require double flushing and are prone to clogs.

Application: The use of a Flushmate® System provides a pressurized flush that eliminates double flushing, clogs, saves water and keeps drains open.

Recommendation: Grainger has an extensive selection of plumbing products including the Flushmate system that is designed to replace any previous generation of Flushmate series.

SLOAN

No. IATR2

Flushmate® System

Replacement System For:

500, 501, 501A, And 501B Series In 2 Piece Toilet, Except American Standard Fixtures

- Includes mounting nuts and instructions
- Fewer moving parts extends service life
- 10 year warranty

For more information, contact your Grainger representative or go online to grainger.com